Anthony Dias Blue

The approachability of the wine has defined what this wine is and what it has always been. The concept of enjoying the company of others tends to involve food and there is no better wine to sip with friends than this one. With fresh yet subtly dark fruit nuance and luxurious tannin, the Coeur de Vigne Rutherford Cabernet is enjoyable as the main attraction or a compliment to a true epicurean feast! Drink now or enjoy over the next 5-10 years.
