2020 Coeur de Vigne from Sullivan Rutherford Estate

Sullivan Rutherford Estate is a renowned winery in Napa Valley, recognized for producing high-quality, estate-grown wines. Sullivan Estate's 2020 Coeur de Vigne pays homage to the region's extensive winemaking history, with the 26-acre Sullivan property straddling the historical dividing line between Rancho Caymus and Rancho Carne Humana from the era of Spanish to Mexican rule over two centuries ago. "Coeur de Vigne" translates to "heart of the vine." Crafted in 2020 by Winemaker Jeff Cole with meticulous attention to detail, Sullivan's 2020 Coeur de Vigne embodies the iconic qualities of Rutherford, reflecting Sullivan Estate's commitment to preserving the classical traditions of winemaking while incorporating modern techniques. This deep ruby wine unveils a complex bouquet of blackberry, baking chocolate, pipe tobacco, and violet, leading to a well-balanced palate with plush tannins and flavors of black currant, vanilla, cocoa, mocha, and a lingering sweet spice finish.
